Release Two

Centred on an expansive 1000m² parkland, this collection of terrace homes achieves a sense of privacy delivered through thoughtful, natural landscape design.

Featuring a collection of two, three and four bedroom floorplans, all practical in their design and inclusive of features intrinsic to enhancing the way we live in the sub-tropics. The interiors of each home have been designed by renowned architects Rothelowman, drawing inspiration from the generous private courtyards and green spaces beyond.
