A shared spirit of community.

Imagine a friendly, welcoming community where neighbours know each other, friends and families meet in the local park, and residents actively foster a positive community spirit...

Imagine a place where parks are part of your everyday lifestyle, offering activity and adventure to all ages; where green open spaces and recreation facilities create a lively hub for relaxation, exercise, sports, and social gatherings. Where tree-lined streets are reclaimed as places for people.

That place is Baldivis Parks.

At Baldivis Parks, you'll enjoy an outdoor lifestyle with a real sense of connection to a vibrant community. So make park life, part of your life today.

The centre of family life.

Baldivis Parks offers something for everyone, so whatever stage of life you're enjoying, an exciting range of lot sizes and individual park precincts will make it easy to choose just the right place for your family.

It's also an estate with a focus on traditional family values, like neighbourhood, community, and connection. Integral to this are the parks – especially the magnificent new park located at the heart of the estate.

Designed to be used and loved by people of all ages, this central park is a natural place to meet, relax, socialise and exercise, with its large grassed areas, shaded playground, fitness nodes, trampoline and half court basketball, bike paths, artworks, barbecue area and more.

Against this beautiful backdrop of nature, you'll be able to watch your family thrive in an active, healthy, connected community.
